

Staying Strong As One

KURURRUNGKU CATHOLIC EDUCATION CENTRE, BILLILUNA

ABORIGINAL EDUCATION POLICY

Created: 2018
Due for Review: 2021

1. Rationale

Catholic school communities have a responsibility to create an understanding and appreciation of Aboriginal people, their histories, cultures and spirituality. Catholic schools, in conjunction with their parents, families and communities, shall play an important role in the Christian formation of their students to develop as active and contributing members of Australian society. ‘Catholic schools can serve as models for all within Western Australia who seek to create genuine communities. Such communities are always founded upon shared commitment to the common good’ (Mandate, 7).

Catholic Education Western Australia (CEWA) recognises Aboriginal people as the original inhabitants of Australia, and embraces the richness and diversity that exists both within and across Australia’s many Aboriginal nations. As such, Catholic education is committed to maximising the learning opportunities for all Aboriginal people.

Western Australia Catholic school communities have a responsibility to improve the educational outcomes of Aboriginal students, while acknowledging, respecting and reflecting Aboriginal peoples’ histories and cultures, including their unique values, languages and spirituality, for the betterment of all students.

This policy should be utilised in conjunction with the Catholic Education Commission of Western Australia (CECWA) Justice Education policy, Student Enrolment policy and Curriculum policy.

2. Definitions

Aboriginal refers to the original inhabitants of Australia and respectfully includes Torres Strait Islander people.

The term parents is not limited to the Western nuclear family definition, but rather reflects complex and dynamic Aboriginal kinship systems regulated by social bonds, physical and emotional relationship to country, and connections to ancestral spirits.

The term histories and cultures is inclusive of the unique values, languages and spirituality of Aboriginal peoples.

The term Aboriginal Education refers to the deep knowledge that can be learned from Aboriginal histories and cultures. Aboriginal Education applies to all areas within the school including: teaching and learning, employment, career pathways and community partnerships.

The term Aboriginal Education Plan refers to a formalised, whole-school plan to address all facets of Aboriginal Education.

The term Aboriginal Nation refers to Aboriginal society as one that is diverse, complex and sophisticated. Australia is made up of many Aboriginal Nations.

3. Scope
